

MGM
Institute of Management
N-6, CIDCO, Aurangabad

Syllabus for MBA I to IV SEMESTER

IS 119 and IS 219, IS 319 and IS 419 – Moral and Ethical Values

Semester	Lecture No.	Topics to be covered
I	1-5	1. Nature and scope of human values 2. Moral character building 2.a. Eastern Perspective M. K. Gandhi and Vivekananda 2.b. Western Perspective-Aristotle 3. Use of ethical values in social, personal and professional life.
II	1-3	4. Ethical Concepts 5. Virtues and Vice 6. Right and wrong 7. Justice and fairness
III	1-5	8. Indian Value System 8. a. Dharma-Riteous way of living. Its meaning and classification 8. b. Yama-Five ethical disciplines. Satya-Truth, Ahinsa-Non violence, astheya-non stealing, aparigraha-non possession, brahmacharya- celibacy. 8. c. Niyama- Five rules of self discipline. Swachha-mental and physical cleanliness, santosha-happiness, tapas- controlling senses and mind, swadhyay- studying scriptures with self introspection, ishwarpranidhana- surrender, worship of god.
IV	1-7	9. Great personalities 9.a. Socrates-Sacrificing one's life for truth. 9. b. Budhha-Astana marg for rightful way of life. 9.c. Mother Teresa-Service to humanity 9. d. Ashoka- Living life for truth. 10. Practical ethics 10 a. Social ethics-Justification of civil disobedience in a democratic state. 10.b. Business ethics-Moral and social responsibility of business organization. 10. c. Personal ethics- Ethical values for the growth in personal life.

Note:

1. Teaching will be carried out as per course plan
2. Student groups will be asked to make presentations / cover topics